

Using our three core subject, we combine their best attributes to deliver a course, suited to building confidence, concentration, behavioural and social skills. All in a relaxed; non-educational environment, while allowing the opportunity to connecting to others within the community.

Geeks Experience is a Bit of all of the following

- Design Geeks

Learn how to design websites, animation and games, Develop skills in design software, and experiment with 3D design. Open their imagination and release it in using the world of technology

- Geeks Star Coder

Learn or enhance their skills in block-based and text-based programming. Develop a logical, challenge driven mind... Courses include Programming, Game Development and Website Development

- Tech Gurus

This will develop skills in technology repair, servicing and installation (For Hardware and Software) Work with Computers, Laptops, Tablets and Phones. Being hands-on is key to our approach and sessions are 80% Practical and 20% Theory.